

Study at the Worlds Greatest Place

0870 62 65 100

- London Academy of Media Film TV
- Radio Journalism
- Wednesday-Thursday at 10:00am-5pm
- Lecturer: Jo Daykin

Jo Daykin was a Radio Producer with the BBC for ten years working for magazine programmes such as Woman's Hour and also making many topical programmes for young people, including a weekly programme for Radio 4. Features and 'fly on the wall' documentary were a specialism. She now works as a freelance Media and Event Producer.

Pre-course preparation:

- Listen to the news headlines and more detailed bulletins on several radio stations and note different approaches in the way they handle content and actually present the news, e.g. R1, 4 and 5 and a commercial radio station such as Capital.
- Try to listen to a consumer programme such as You and Yours on Radio 4
- Choose one or two news articles that have caught your eye that might make a good radio story.

Day 1

10.00 am – 10.30am

- What makes radio journalism distinctive?
- Review of current news styles
- Golden rules of radio journalism.

10.30 am – 13.00

- Using a current news item:-
- Writing short reports and headlines
- Recording a two way 'as live' report

14.00- 15.00

Planning a news package

- research
- who will you interview
- types of reporting you can include
- editorial integrity/keeping legal
- multimedia implications for news collection and presentation

15.00- 16.00

Recording 'in role' interviews and vox pops

- asking the right questions
- microphone technique
- using the location

16.00 – 17.00

- Introduction to Adobe Audition

Day 2

10.00 – 13.00

- Editing and ordering constituent parts of the package
- Recording extra elements as necessary.

14.00 – 16.30

- Writing and Recording Links
- Compiling package – links and interviews – making CD showreel

16.30-17.00

- Networking and getting your first job

ENROLL NOW

Email : londonacademy@media-courses.com

Web : www.media-courses.com